Industrial incident-flight response

The Dodge County Sheriff's Office responded to an industrial incident where Flight for Life was called. The patient was transported to a trauma center with serious injuries.

At about 7:17 AM on Monday, April 30, 2018, the sheriff's office received a 911 call of a woman with a head injury at Advanced Disposal in the Township of Williamstown on County Highway V, about a mile south of Mayville. The woman was working on a ladder which was struck by a vehicle on the property. The woman fell about 10 feet and received a head injury.

An air ambulance was immediately requested and Flight for Life Fond du Lac responded to the scene and transported the patient to a trauma center. Also responding to the scene were the Dodge County Sheriff's Office, Mayville EMS, Iron Ridge Fire and First responders. The patient's status is not known.

Questions may be directed to Sheriff Dale J. Schmidt.
